STATEMENT AND RESOLUTIONS OF THE FORTY-FIFTH ORDINARY SESSION OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS

STATEMENT ON SOUTHERN AFRICA BY THE FORTY-FIFTH ORDINARY
SESSION OF THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS
23 – 28 FEBRUARY, 1987, ADDIS ABABA, ETHIOPIA

1. The general situation in Southern Africa grows more critical with each passing day, making it more and more clear that the Pretoria regime is not prepared for a negotiated settlement to eliminate the apartheid system, thus showing its intransigence against change in that region. Indeed the intransigence of the Pretoria regime, about which Africa has repeatedly been telling the international community has been vindicated by, among others, the Commonwealth Eminent Persons Group which strongly recommends immediate imposition of effective economic sanctions to put pressure on South Africa to force the eradication of apartheid.
2. Inside South Africa the continued mass uprising and determined struggle by workers, students, youth, women and patriotic clergymen has been gaining momentum. In the face of these concerted struggles, the regime has resorted to increased repression by the imposition of nation-wide state of emergency, arrest and detention of over 22,000 patriots, including over 4,000 children, introduction of strict censorship and the use of the so-called vigilantes to create black on black violence. Since September 1984 the regime has killed over 2,300 men, women and children. In the face of the increasingly intransigent position by the Pretoria regime, the increase of all-round political support and intensification of armed struggle together with the imposition of comprehensive and mandatory sanctions against racist South Africa have become more urgent than ever.
3. The worldwide observance of the 75th Anniversary of the ANC constitutes an act of solidarity with the liberation struggle of the people of South Africa and reaffirms justice of their cause.

4. Racist South Africa continues to occupy Namibia illegally in defiance of UN resolutions and decisions, in particular Resolution 435/1978. SWAPO and the Namibian people have successfully thwarted all attempts by the racist colonial regime to impose a puppet administration on the people of Namibia. The Pretoria regime is currently preparing yet another bogus constitution with a referendum in view in May or June 1987. Africa rejects this diabolical plan of racist South Africa and urges the international community not to recognize such a force, or give it any measure or respectability.
5. The continued use of conscripted black soldiers from the so-called South African bantustans to fight against the combatants of the People's Liberation Army of Namibia (P.L.A.N.) in Namibia and participate in the acts of aggression against Angola, and of deployment of conscripted Namibians in the so-called South West Africa Territory Force in the violence against the black townships of South Africa, is yet another manifestation of the regime's tactics of attempting to weaken the solidarity of the oppressive people of South Africa and Namibia by pitting black against black.
6. It must be reiterated that the United Nations council for Namibia remains the only legal administering authority of Namibia until independence is achieved. In this regard, the Member States of the Non-Aligned Movement and United Nations as well as International and Non-Governmental Organizations and Specialized Agencies of the UN are called upon to support activities of the UN Council for Namibia and help strengthen continuing co-operation between the council and SWAPO, the sole authentic and legitimate representative of the people of Namibia.
7. UN Resolution 435 remains the only acceptable basis for a peaceful solution of the Namibian question, (armed struggle, mass mobilization and action by the people must be intensified). The UN Security Council should therefore meet forthwith to assume its responsibility fully and to consider the question of Namibia and impose comprehensive and mandatory sanctions on racist South Africa so as to compel the latter to co-operate in the implementation of Resolution 435. Meanwhile, armed struggle, mass mobilization and action by the people must be intensified.

8. The constant raids, sabotage missions and the infiltration of armed bandits and other criminal elements by the Pretoria regime to destroy life and property in Angola, Mozambique, Zambia, Botswana, Zimbabwe, Lesotho and Swaziland constitute another aspect of the diabolical scheme, to create puppet regimes that would serve to perpetuate apartheid, and foster the business interests of Western and other multinational corporations.
9. The continuing acts of subversion by Pretoria to destabilize the independent States in the region and undermine the liberation struggle can be defeated if Africa and all those progressive forces that have always supported the struggle against colonialism, immediately give all-round support to help the Frontline States enhance their defence capabilities. Such assistance by the international community has become imperative and urgent if the people of Namibia and South Africa, through their fighting movements are to bring about the speedy destruction of the apartheid system. The Forty-seventh Ordinary Session of the Co-ordinating Committee for the Liberation of Africa called upon the international community to contribute urgently to the fund set up by the Eighth Summit of the Non-Aligned Movement for Southern Africa and the Council of Ministers endorsed that call.
10. The continued occupation of parts of Southern Angola by troops of racist South Africa, and the overt military assistance which the Pretoria regime and the Reagan Administration is giving to UNITA bandits is one manifestation of the conspiracy to subvert the legitimate government of Angola.
11. The recent 75 kilometre military incursion into Southern Angola from the border of occupied Namibia by racist forces of South Africa, is yet another manifestation of state terrorism and banditry embarked upon by the Pretoria regime against the People's Republic of Angola. This act of aggression or any other such acts must not only be condemned, but must be challenged.

12. The continued acts of armed bandits, recruited, financed, trained, equipped, infiltrated and directed by the Pretoria regime against the People's Republic of Mozambique is the main cause for loss of human lives, the destruction of economic and social infrastructures and the massive outflow of displaced persons from Mozambique.
13. It is noted with appreciation that the Secretary-General of the United Nations has appointed a personal representative to Mozambique to monitor the deteriorating famine situation, largely caused by South African sponsored bandits and natural calamities. In this regard, the Forty-fifth Ordinary Session of the Council of Ministers calls upon the international community to render assistance to the People's Republic of Mozambique.
14. The liberation struggle in South Africa and Namibia is a continuation of the decolonization of the African Continent. Any attempt to project it as part of the East-West conflict must be totally rejected by Africa and the international community. It is in this regard that the deliberate attempt by the Reagan Administration to obstruct the enviable eradication of the apartheid system through the bankrupt policy of Constructive Engagement and the linkage of independence of Namibia to the withdrawal of Cuban forces from Angola constitutes hostile acts that must be challenged.
15. The turn-about in the attitude of the American Administration and the British Government to engage in talks with the National Liberation Movements of Namibia and South Africa whom they have always called terrorists, is encouraging; but cannot constitute the vehicle for the elimination of apartheid. Dialogue is essential but cannot bring about the downfall of the racist Pretoria regime. What both Governments have the moral duty to do, is to support the imposition of comprehensive and mandatory sanctions.
16. In full awareness of the very critical situation in Southern Africa, and also, of the continuing collusion of the Reagan Administration with the Pretoria regime to deliberately obstruct the implementation of UN Security Council

Resolution 435 of 1978, the Council of Ministers categorically asserts as follows, that:

- a) THE SUPPORT EXPRESSED BY SENIOR OFFICIALS OF THE REAGAN ADMINISTRATION FOR THE SO-CALLED NATAL OPTION i.e. “THE NATAL INDABA” IS ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO GLORIFY THE BANTUSTANIZATION OF SOUTH AFRICA. THE NATAL OPTION IS A STEP BACKWARDS, A MANEUVER DESIGNED TO ADVANCE THE IDEA OF “PEACEFUL AND RACIAL CO-EXISTENCE” IN A MULTI-NATIONAL CONTEXT; WHERE SOUTH AFRICA WOULD NOT BECOME A UNITARY STATE WITH ONE DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT, BUT A CONGLOMERATION OF PROVINCIAL ENTITIES THAT WOULD SANCTIFY THE OUTDATED AND UNACCEPTABLE IDEA OF WHITE SUPREMACY AND RACIAL SEPARATENESS, THE SO-CALLED “INDABA” IS THEREFORE CATEGORICALLY REJECTED, BECAUSE IT SEEKS TO DIVIDE SOUTH AFRICA;
- b) THE KIDNAPPING OF INDIVIDUALS IN THE NEIGHBORING AND FRONTLINE STATES BY THE AGENTS OF THE PRETORIA REGIME IS A SERIOUS VIOLATION OF INTERNATIONAL LAW AND OF THE TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY OF THE STATES IN THE REGION AND MUST BE CONDEMNED;
- c) THE ILLEGAL AND DESPICABLE ACT OF DETAINING THOUSANDS OF INNOCENT CHILDREN IN SOUTH AFRICA BY THE PRETORIA REGIME, IS HEINOUS. THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS THEREFORE; STRONGLY DEMANDS THE IMMEDIATE RELEASE OF ALL THESE CHILDREN;
- d) THE SECURITY COUNCIL MUST RISE UP TO ITS POLITICAL AND MORAL RESPONSIBILITY TO ENSURE THE STRICT APPLICATION AND ENFORCEMENT OF THE 1977 ARMS

EMBARGO WHICH IS BEING VIOLATED WITH THE COMPLICITY AND DUPLICITY OF SOME WESTERN GOVERNMENTS;

- e) THE OIL EXPORTING AND OIL PRODUCING STATES PARTICULARLY THOSE IN THE GULF AREA HAVE THE OBLIGATION ALSO, TO ENSURE THAT EMBARGOED OIL DOES NOT CONTINUE TO GO TO SOUTH AFRICA; AND SHOULD TAKE APPROPRIATE MEASURES AGAINST ALL VIOLATORS OF THE OIL EMBARGO;
- f) THE BLATANT DEFIANCE OF INTERNATIONAL PUBLIC OPINION BY THE PRETORIA REGIME AND OF THE RESOLUTIONS OF THE OAU, THE UNITED NATIONS AND THE NON-ALIGNED MOVEMENT; CALLS FOR NOTHING LESS THAN THE INTENSIFICATION OF THE ARMED STRUGGLE IN NAMIBIA AND SOUTH AFRICA;
- g) THE PEOPLE'S STRUGGLE IN SOUTH AFRICA IS NOT AN IDEOLOGICAL STRUGGLE. IT IS A STRUGGLE AGAINST AN EVIL SYSTEM WHICH AFRICA HAS A MORAL AND POLITICAL OBLIGATION TO ERADICATE;
- h) THE PERSISTENT LINKING OF THE INDEPENDENCE OF NAMIBIA BY THE REAGAN ADMINISTRATION AND THE RACIST REGIME OF SOUTH AFRICA, TO THE WITHDRAWAL OF CUBAN INTERNATIONALIST FORCES FROM THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF ANGOLA IS MORALLY BANKRUPT AND POLITICALLY UNACCEPTABLE;
- i) THE SOVEREIGNTY; TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY AND THE POLITICAL INDEPENDENCE OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF ANGOLA IS NOT A POLITICAL ISSUE FOR NEGOTIATIONS OF ANY KIND. THE LINKAGE ISSUE LIKE THE CONCEPT OF

NEGOTIATION WITH THE BANDITS IN ANGOLA IS THEREFORE ONCE AGAIN, CATEGORICALLY REJECTED;

- j) THE INTERNATIONAL SANCTIONS CAMPAIGN AGAINST SOUTH AFRICA MUST BE SUSTAINED WITH A VIEW TO OBTAINING THE IMPOSITION OF COMPREHENSIVE AND MANDATORY SANCTIONS, UNDER CHAPTER VII OF THE CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS. THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE USA, UK AND FRG ARE CALLED UPON TO RECONSIDER THEIR POSITION AND JOIN THE REST OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY IN THE APPLICATION OF EFFECTIVE, COMPREHENSIVE AND MANDATORY SANCTIONS AGAINST SOUTH AFRICA;
- k) THE NEGATIVE VOTE RECENTLY CAST BY THE UNITED STATES, THE UNITED KINGDOM AND THE FRG TO FRUSTRATE THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY'S EFFORTS TOWARDS THE IMPOSITION OF SELECTIVE MANDATORY SANCTIONS MUST BE CONDEMNED AS A HOSTILE ACT OF AFRICAN ASPIRATIONS;
- l) THE PEOPLES OF THESE COUNTRIES ARE INVITED TO INTENSIFY PRESSURE ON THEIR RESPECTIVE GOVERNMENTS TO CONFORM WITH THE INTERNATIONAL CONSENSUS IN FAVOR OF SANCTIONS AGAINST RACIST SOUTH AFRICA;
- m) THE REAGAN ADMINISTRATION'S VETO WHICH CONTRADICTS THE SPIRIT OF ITS OWN LEGISLATION ON SANCTIONS IS VIEWED WITH GREAT CONCERN. IN THIS REGARD, COUNCIL APPEALS TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AND LAWMAKERS OPPOSED TO APARTHEID TO EMBARK ON A NEW CAMPAIGN FOR COMPREHENSIVE AND MANDATORY SANCTIONS.

The Council of Ministers of the Organization of African Unity, meeting in its Forty-fifth Ordinary Session in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, from 23 to 28 February, 1987,

Mindful that the negative votes cast against draft Security Council Resolution S18705 is a further manifestation of collusion with apartheid, and of contempt for Africa's call for sanctions against South Africa,

Reaffirming that apartheid is a crime against humanity and that it constitutes a threat to international peace and security,

RESOLUTION ON THE SITUATION OF REFUGEES IN AFRICA

The Council of Ministers of the Organization of African Unity, meeting in its Forty-fifth Ordinary Session in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, from 23 to 28 February, 1987,

Having exhaustively considered the report of the Secretary-General on the activities of the General Secretariat with regard to the refugee situation in Africa, and the report of the activities of the OAU Commission of Fifteen on Refugees,

Considering that refugee increases continue to occur in various parts of the Continent and to place extra burden on countries of asylum, especially the Frontline States and other States bordering racist South Africa,

Noting further with deep concern the destruction caused to the social and economic infrastructure of the Frontline States and other States in the region by the activities of these armed bandits and by the military attacks of the racist regime's security forces,

Recalling the various OAU Resolutions and, in particular, Resolution CM/Res.987 (XLII) on the accession to the 1951 UN Convention on Refugees and its 1967 Protocol, the 1969 OAU Convention governing the specific aspects of the refugee problem in Africa as well as the principles enshrined in the African Charter on Human and People's Rights,

Noting with satisfaction the coming into force in October 1986 of the African Charter on Human and People's Rights,

Recalling Article I of the OAU Convention of 1969 governing the specific aspects of refugee problems in Africa as well as recommendation No. 2 of the 1979 Arusha Conference concerning the definition of the term refugee and determination of refugee status and Resolution CM/Res.727(XXXIII) on Arusha Refugee Conference,

Recalling Article II (6) of the OAU Convention of 1969 governing the specific aspects of refugee problems in Africa which stipulates that for the reasons of security, countries of asylum shall, as far as possible, settle refugees at a reasonable distance from the frontiers of their country of origin,

Recalling further Article III of the 1969 OAU Convention governing the specific aspects of refugee problems in Africa and Resolution AHG/Res. 26 (II) on the commitments of Member States to a humanitarian policy in favour of refugees and in particular on the need to prohibit refugees residing in the respective Member States from engaging in any political and military activity likely to endanger the good relations between the host country and the country of origin, without prejudice of the rights of people under colonial and apartheid domination,

Re-affirming once more Article V of the 1969 OAU Convention governing the specific aspects of the refugee problems in Africa and the various OAU Resolutions calling on all Member States to encourage voluntary repatriation as the most desirable solution to refugee problems,

Recalling Resolution CM/Res.1040 (XLIV) on the need to gather reliable and accurate statistical data on refugee and returnee populations and the need for Member States to integrate the formulation and implementation of refugees/returnees programmes into the national, medium and long term development plans, in order to ensure a harmonious integration, mutual benefits and social integration among nationals and refugees,

RESOLUTION ON THE SITUATION IN THE MIDDLE EAST

The Council of Ministers of the Organization of African Unity, meeting in its Forty-fifth Ordinary Session in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, from 23 to 28 February 1987,

Having considered the report of the Secretary-General of the Organization of African Unity on the Middle East as contained in Document CM/1419 (XLV),

Guided by the principle and purposes of the Charters of the Organization of African Unity and the United Nations and by the common determination of the African and Arab peoples to fight jointly to safeguard their freedom,

Recalling the successive resolutions adopted by previous sessions of the Assembly of Heads of State and Government, and the Council of Ministers of the OAU on the situations in the Middle East,

Recalling further the numerous recommendations and resolutions adopted by the various Conferences of the Non-Aligned Movement on the situation in the Middle East,

Noting with deep concern that in spite of the many resolutions adopted by the United Nations General Assembly, the Security Council and the Organization of African Unity urging Israel to withdraw from Arab territories occupied since 1967, including Jerusalem, not only has Israel persistently refused to comply with these resolutions but continues to pursue its expansionist and occupation policy,

Deploring the systematic obstruction by Israel of all efforts made towards reaching a peaceful solution to the Palestinian problem,

Fully conscious of the fact that the support given to Israel by some powers, the United States of America in particular, enables it to pursue its acts of aggression and encourages it to perpetrate acts of terrorism and illegal occupation of part of the territories in the region,

Noting with concern that the alliance between the Zionist regime of Israel and the apartheid regime of South Africa is aimed at pursuing the Policy of terrorism and liquidation of the Palestinians and Arabs in the occupied territories on the one hand and of the majority black population of South Africa and Namibia on the other:

1. REAFFIRMS all previous resolutions adopted by the Assembly of Heads of State and Government and the Council of Ministers of the OAU and its total and effective support of the Palestinian people under the dynamic leadership of its sole and legitimate representative, the Palestine Liberation Organization;

6. STRONGLY CONDEMNS all agreements concluded separately and all commitments made individually which constitute a flagrant violation of the rights of the Palestinian people to return to their homelands;

7. STRONGLY CONDEMNS the establishment of the nuclear-missiles, by Israel in the Golan Heights and the Negev Desert which not only represents a direct threat to the Arab region but also to peace and security in the African continent;
8. STRONGLY CONDEMNS Israel, the occupying force, for not complying with the provisions of the Fourth Geneva Convention of 12 August, 1949, on the protection of civilians in times of war;
9. URGES Israel to put an immediate end to its illegal occupation of Southern Lebanon and CONSIDERS null and void any measures taken by Israel in the occupied Arab territories aimed at exploiting their resources and REQUESTS all States, International Organizations and Investment Agencies not to recognize Israel's authority over these territories and not to cooperate with it in any form whatsoever, as such cooperation is exploitation of these resources and sources of energy;
10. MAKES AN URGENT APPEAL to the International Community to exert an effective pressure on Israel in all fields so as to force it to comply with the decision of the International Community;
11. REITERATES ITS REQUEST to the Security Council to take the necessary measures to compel Israel to end its occupation of the Arab and Palestinian territories and to help the Palestinian people to exercise their national rights in accordance with the recommendations adopted by the UN Special Committee on the Exercise of the Inalienable Rights of the Palestinian People;
